Twelve Angry Jurors

Directed by Rose Graziano, this literary classic is told against the backdrop of a murder trial in which a teenager is accused of killing his father. The 12 jurors must make a unanimous decision in what appears to be an open-and-shut case. Or is it? As the evidence is painstakingly scrutinized, tensions mount, tempers rise and the 12 jurors are forced to confront their secret frailties and bitter prejudices in an unrelenting struggle for the truth.

Auditions - Sept. 8th at 4:00 PM. The cast consists of 12 adult jurors, male/female and 1 male guard.

Auditions and performances will be held at the Trinity Boscobel United Methodist Church in Buchanan, NY.

Performance -November 1-3 and 8-10, 2002.

Our 1st musical production at the Trinity Boscobel Church was a Broadway revue made up of 30 songs performed by 37 local talented cast members. The songs ranged from production numbers like "Another Op'in'n Another Show" from Kiss Me Kate to solo numbers such as "Summertime" from Porgy & Bess.

Other milestones for this production were:

- Largest cast in HTM history
- Broke all HTM attendance records

The audience loved the cabaret setting and wonderful desserts that were sold before the show and during intermission! It was great to hear audience members singing to themselves (or so they thought!) during the show. The performance ended with a wonderful medley of songs honoring NYC, which brought a tear to more than one eye. Don't miss our next show!
